Market Comments
Week ending 24/02/2012

Cattle numbers finished down almost 3,000 on last week at 7,200 head. Sheep and lambs however increased by 8,000, totalling 60,563 head.

Cattle sales today were slightly off the boil, possibly an indication that the stellar run may be about to slow down, with passed in rates higher than in recent weeks. Joined females continued to sell well, with young Angus cows at Boggabri, in calf to Limousin, making $1225, and older PTIC Angus and Black Baldy cows at Tumberumba selling for $975.

Our usual sale toppers, young black heifers with calves, were scarce this week; 8-10 year old Angus cows with Angus calves, back in calf to Shorthorn, made $1375. At Cobar, top quality Charolais/Santa heifers with Angus cross calves sold for $1315.

The Blue Ribband sale today again produced good results for quality young cattle, with 10-12 month old Angus/Brangus steers weighing 388kg at Inverell making 217c, and the 14-16 month old heifers account the same vendor at 418kg selling for 202c/$848. In other sales, Angus steers were hard to source, with weaners making 256c, yearlings 222c. Angus yearling heifers were making 210-215c.

Clearance rates in sheep sales were improved on Tuesday, with a combination of a slight firming in the market as well as vendor price adjustments. However on Thursday it was business as usual of the past few weeks with passed in rates being high. First cross ewes sold better this week, while results for Merino ewes, which have been powering along as almost the only positive lately, were more mixed. Border Leicester/Merino ewe lambs at Coonamble sold for $184.50, and a mob of mixed age Border/Merino and Dohne/Merino ewes out of Gilgandra, scanned in lamb to White Suffolk rams, made $165.

Young Merino ewes topped at $225.50 for Mullengudgery blood 18 month olds at Nyngan, however vendor expectations tended to be high for this article. Proven breeders continued to attract strong competition, even with not much wool on their backs. Older ewes felt a slight price correction, with one exception showing that quality bloodlines will attract top prices even in a downward market - unjoined Haddon Rig blood CFA ewes out of Louth with a big skin made $114.40.

Exporters again showed some interest this week, even though busy loading sheep onto boats, and though most processors were still cautious, a couple of active buyers is all that's needed for competition. Processors, restockers and exporters battled it out for wether hoggets estimated to dress 25kg with a two inch skin, to end up at $107.50 or 430c/kg carcase weight.
