

AuctionsPlus week ending 7 Dec 2012

With a big influx of Queensland cattle, numbers were up this week to finish at 6,849 head. Sheep and lamb numbers were also up on last week, boosted by three feature sales, totalling 52,572 head.

Young first cross ewes sold for $116-$118 this week; and maiden Merino ewes made from $72 to top at $128 for Glenpaen blood 18 month olds out of Horsham. The five year olds offered by the same vendor sold for $75; no other older ewes found a home. Merino wethers had much better clearance than we have seen lately; a big run out of Coleambally made to $43 for the tops at 39kg, and $39.50 for the 28kg draft.

The Cashmore Oaklea Maternal Ewe sale resulted in an average price of $109 for 1,380 ewe lambs sold, and $104 for 1,842 ewes ranging from hoggets to six year olds. The top price of $130 was achieved for both lambs and 16 month old ewes. The Dorper and White Dorper Twilight feature sale on Tuesday proved a success in terms convenience for buyers; ewe lambs sold to an average of $77, and ewes averaged $80.

The Lambpro feeder lamb sale on Tuesday saw 2,097 lambs sold, with an average liveweight of 34kg. Prices ranged from $41.50 to $65, to average $54.

Elsewhere, there was little change in lamb prices since last week; though chatter indicates the lamb job was a bit better around the yards this week. In Tuesday and Thursday's sales, 21-23kg lambs sold for $33.50, and 28-29kg lambs made $45, with one standout being 27kg second crosses at Crookwell that sold for $53. 35-36kg lambs made from $55.50 to $60.50, and the heaviest lambs offered were a line of Composites weighing 44kg that sold for $64.

The Eastern States cattle sales looked a lot tougher this week, particularly in Queensland, where big lines of Brahman yearlings and joined females attracted little interest. Weaners and crossbred yearlings sold quite well, with 277kg crossbred steers at Mitchell making to $555 or 200c; Angus cross weaner steers out of Tara sold for 195c, and their sisters made 185c. Further south, 350kg black steers averaged 189c; and in Tasmania Hereford cross steers around 400kg averaged 170c.

In the west, the annual Pemberton Vealer and Weaner sale was held this week, offering 750 head. Weaner steers averaged 195c, weaner heifers 187c, and mixed sex vealers sold for 350c/kg carcass weight.

Cow and calf units had to be black to sell today; young females with calves made from $935 to $1210, with the top price of the day of $1270 being for a small line of four and five year old cows at Wangaratta. The only females without calves at foot to sell were also Angus heifers, making $675.
