

AuctionsPlus market comments week ending 23 Aug 2013

A solid result for prices and numbers this week as sheep and lambs were up by 3,299 to 31,523 head whilst cattle climbed 1,945 to 5,925 head. Two special sales held on Friday for Palgrove Charolais and Kilburnie Angus had solid results for their respective vendors. Once again quality rose to the top for sheep with Merino and first cross ewes receiving fair attention. 390, 3-5 year old Merino ewes from Warren at 23.4kg dressed, SIL sold for $131 with Glendamar Blood. From Cummings in SA, 250 Merino ewes at 14 months and 21.5Kgs with 2.75" skin but unjoined sold for $141 with Rosemakita & Leachem blood. 285, 2 year old Border Leicester first cross ewes from Canowindra unjoined sold for $131.50 unjoined with 2.25" skin. Merino wether lambs sold from $33 from Barcaldine to a top of $58.50 for Lone Pine blood lambs with a January skin from Coonable. New season lambs are entering the market with a price between $70 and $80 for the heaviest lots up to 34kg live. At Euroa, 60 2nd cross Poll Dorset mixed sex lambs at 3 months made $70 at 30kg live. In Temora NSW, 620 Poll Dorset cross merino lambs at 34kg live sold for $80. 2 sales on Friday for cattle delivered good results for light Santa steers from Thargomindah, QLD with 308 Santas at 4-7 months at 172kg selling for 183c/$315 however light steers across the eastern states were making from 179 to 224c (av 176c). Light heifers sold well for up to 206c. 250-300kg steers sold for 175-220c with a good selection of Angus steers in this group that brought quite a few buyers into the auction. The top price was for 25 Angus steers from Yass, NSW at 10-12 months weighing 250Kg selling for 220c/$555. 300-350kg steers sold for between 161-211c (av 192c). With 50 Hereford steers at 11-12 months weighing 340Kg selling for 211c/715Kg with Ijemira blood. The Palgrove Charolais bull sale was interfaced with AuctionsPlus and had spirited bidding for most of the 142 lots. Lot 2 achieved the top price of $40,000 with every lot finding a buyer. The Kilburnie Angus bull sale had solid prices throughout but they achieved a top price of $10,000 and that was bought by an AuctionsPlus buyer. Congratulations to both vendors.
