comparison date 01/07/2015

Numbers increased slightly on last week with the usual processor buyers operating, while one restocker order was active on light weight plain conditioned cows. The quality of the heavy cows was good with some well covered lines selling strongly, while those lacking finish sold steady.

The medium weight D2 and 3 score cows sold slightly dearer on average, up close to 10c with prices ranging from 180c to 249c for the D2's, and from 227c to 253c/kg for 3 score's. Heavy weight lines followed a similar trend to sell close to 5c dearer on last with the better quality 3 score cows ranging from 222c to 264c, averaging 239c/kg. Friesian cows were again in limited numbers with the heavier better finished lines selling from 222c to 234c/kg.

A mixed quality selection of bulls saw prices fluctuate according to finish. Medium weight C2 lines sold from 208c to 240c, while heavy weights sold slightly dearer averaging 239c/kg for over 600kg lines.
