

AuctionsPlus Market Comments Week Ending 16th August

By Anna Adams

Numbers were reasonably steady this week, with sheep and lambs totalling 28,224 head, and cattle finished at 3,980.

The bulk of the new season crossbred lambs offered this week were Border Leicester/Merino mixed sexes out of northern NSW. Lambs averaging 35-36kg sold for $85, and the 27kg lambs sold for $72.50. Further south, a small line of Poll Dorset crosses out of Yass weighing 25kg made $60.

There were also several lines of well grown autumn drop Merino wether lambs this week, which attracted plenty of interest. At Ivanhoe, an offering of Greenfields blood lambs sold to $72.50 for the tops weighing 35kg, and 30kg Demondrille blood lambs out of Young made $56. Grown wether lambs made to $53.

Smaller numbers of Merino ewes offered this week sold to a top of $85 for Merryville blood four year olds in lamb to White Suffolk. There were no scanned young ewes sold this week; ewe lambs sold from $70 to $75. In central NSW, four year old Uardry blood ewes with Border Leicester lambs at foot sold for $151.50. There were also fewer numbers of first cross ewes available; young unjoined ewes made $133, and in SA four year olds with lambs at foot sold to $185.

This week we saw plenty of quality young cattle on offer, and with bigger numbers of 300kg plus cattle, there was plenty of competition from both restockers and feedlots. Angus steers 300kg-350kg averaged 209c, and steers heavier than 350kg averaged 189c. Little black steers under 250kg sold from 236c to 246c, and 205kg Hereford steers at Bourke sold for 205c. Angus heifers with enough weight and quality to interest exporters sold from 184c to 192c; crossbred heifers trailed steers by 20c-30c.

There were few sales of breeder cattle this week; Wagyu cross cows with calves sold to $850, young PTIC Angus cows out of Inverell made $1235, and at Wandoan rising two year old unjoined Santa heifers sold for $775.
