

Communications and Engagement Officer
Mount Isa, Queensland

Salary range between $75,074 - $82,869 plus package benefits

Southern Gulf NRM is a not-for-profit community-based company responsible for planning and implementation of sustainable Natural Resource Management (NRM) in the southern Gulf of Carpentaria region of North West Queensland.

We are seeking a versatile, creative and energetic Communications and Engagement Officer who will take leadership in the management of our communication activities and in the development and implementation of projects that support community engagement and capacity in natural resource management. The position plays a key role in maintaining the positive reputation of Southern Gulf NRM and in ensuring that it remains engaged with and responsive to communities and stakeholders.

As well as taking responsibility for their own projects, the successful applicant will support others in the Southern Gulf NRM team in communications and engagement activities relevant to their projects.

The right person for the role will combine their knowledge and skills in communication and community engagement practice with their knowledge of natural resource management issues and systems. They will be a networker, looking to create productive linkages and partnerships with communities right across this vast region. They will be quick to see the implications and opportunities of emerging natural resource management issues and to 'join the dots' for the benefit of Southern Gulf NRM and the communities it serves.

This is a challenging and rewarding role for someone who understands the central role of communities in achieving sustainable natural resource management.

To apply for the role, please email your Resume and a covering letter of up to three pages outlining how you satisfy the key selection criteria (found in the Position Description) to ceo@southerngulf.com.au.

For a copy of the Position Description, please visit the Southern Gulf NRM website at www.southerngulf.com.au. If you have any enquiries, please call Andrew Maclean on 07 4743 1888.

The closing date for applications is 5pm Sunday 23 January 2017.
