

PARAWAY
PASTORAL CO.

GOVERNESS – ARMRAYNALD STATION

Paraway Pastoral Company has an opportunity for a Governess to join the team at Armraynald Station, located near the township of Burketown in far north Queensland. Armraynald Station is a large-scale cattle breeding enterprise with a team of 11 hardworking and dedicated individuals.

We are seeking an organised and enthusiastic governess for an immediate start to teach one Grade 5 and one prep student.

Skills and experience;

- Sound communication skills both written and spoken;
- Experience with tutoring distance education classes an advantage;
- Computer literate – proficient level of skill in Microsoft Office applications, especially Word, Excel and Outlook;
- An interest in arts and crafts;
- High personal standards in order to set a good example both within the work environment and socially;
- A willingness to listen to and evaluate considered advice;
- Appreciation of children and enjoyment in watching children develop;
- Good time-management and organisation skills to deal with the multi-tasking required in a school;
- Resourceful approach; and
- Blue Card.

Applicants willing to carry out other station duties as required are encouraged to apply. A remuneration package will be offered, commensurate with experience.

For a more detailed role description please contact Armraynald Manager's Assistant, Hannah Simms (07) 4748 5526

Applications should include a cover letter, resume and relevant current referees and be sent to:

Email: employment@parawaypastoral.com