

Feedlot Stockperson

Mooramanna Feedlot is a family owned farming, grazing and feedlot enterprise located 35kms south of St George in SW Qld. We operate a modern 3000hd facility and are looking for an enthusiastic and motivated feedlot stockperson to join our team.

Key Duties:

- Daily pen riding to monitor cattle health/performance,
- Mixing and delivering feed ration to pen bins (this may include weekend rostering)
- Yard work – weighing, processing & inducting, loading cattle
- Accurate record keeping of feed quantities
- Stock Hygiene program.
- Maintenance of livestock waters and quality control.
- Maintenance of machinery (keeping servicing up to date)
- Mustering, as required,
- Maintenance of accommodation area
- Riding Station horses on a regular basis, supply own tack.

Contributing attributes:

- Good communication and observational skills.
- Enthusiastic, dedicated
- Responsible position, ensuring stock are managed to existing conditions
- Experience and knowledge of working/processing stock is preferable.
- Be keen to learn, maintaining current standard in WH & S, stock performance,
- Self- motivated.
- Possess problem solving skills
- Basic computer experience

If you are an experienced and capable stockperson and possess an amicable temperament, this full time position is a career opportunity, close to town with accommodation available. Remuneration is skill/experienced based, and will be negotiated.

To apply: Email your resume to andrew@mcintyreag.com

For further information phone Andrew Turvey on 0428 966 795.