

AuctionsPlus Pty Ltd.
Market Comments
Week ending 27/01/2012

Sheep and lamb numbers finished at 55,757 head for the week, down 12,000 head on last week but a good result when you consider that no sales were held on Thursday for the Australia Day holiday.

Cattle numbers were also slightly lower, finishing with 4625 head. For those who follow records, last Tuesday would be close to the biggest offering of sheep and lambs we have conducted.

While the northern sheep were a little slow to begin, clearances and prices improved as the market moved south. With widespread rain in western and southern Queensland fortunately there were only a few withdrawals on auction day as some vendors contemplated when they would be able to deliver the stock following up to 150mm early in the week.

Again it was obvious that the Merino breeders and woolcutters are in strong demand from the 276 bidders who connected to the sales, while 1st cross ewes and store lambs showed some slight improvement. Vendors of these lines and some of the cleanskin owners are slowly readjusting to the new market and this helped in the improved clearances.

Dorper cross ewes, 4 to 7 years, 48kg liveweight and scanned 100% to White Dorper rams at Barcaldine sold for $72.50. While further south at Cunnamulla 840 Merino ewes, 36kg liveweight, rising 18 to 19 months, NSM, PGK blood, November shorn sold to $150.50, while nearby at Dirranbandi 420 similar age Merino ewes, 44kg liveweight and June shorn, NSM sold to $172.50. At Mungindi 590 Merino wether lambs, 30 kg, 4/5months, unshorn, sold at $81.50.

At Narromine two lots of F3 and F4 Dorper ewes, 61kg liveweight, 1.5yrs, depastured White Dorper rams sold to $158 to strong competition. From Wagga 330 White Suffolk/Merino ewes, 46kg, 7/8 months, September shorn, NSM, sold for $130.50. The Benalla district again provided an annual draft of White Suffolk and Poll Dorset 1st cross mixed sex lambs with a liveweight range of 28 to 40kg, 4/6 months sold from $75 to $95.50 for the heavier shorn lambs. In Tintinara we saw a draft of 264 Merino ewes that were part of a dispersal, rising 2 years, scanned 100% to White Suffolk rams, selling for $217.50.

Following last week's record prices for cows in WA, nearly 500 head were sold this week. Cow prices were a little cheaper at 315 cents/kg dressed but the competition was still strong. Trade cattle were firm and still making around 370 to 401 c/kg dressed to a full field of buyers. All the talk in the cattle world has centred on when not if the market will fall and this has been supported by the rise in $A that sits at around 106 cents.

Today' reports from the physical and over the hooks prices all appear firm to a little weaker, with some agents from the smaller centres later in the week reporting a stronger result.

Our sales today would appear to follow these reports with cows and calves, PTIC cows and weaners all about the same price they have been for the past month. Angus weaners sold for 255c/kg in the northern part of NSW and 225c/kg in the southern regions. Good quality cows and calves (where the calves are getting bigger each week) sold from $1200 to $1650. Obviously the recent and predicted rains will have an impact on supply over the next week and it might be awhile before a confident direction is available. There would appear to still be a strong interest in cattle with 349 buyers connected to the first sale and 239 backing up for sale two.

A good market on Tuesday's WooltradePlus with 9 buyers bidding on 303 bales including 6 lots of rehandled wool sold at reasonable prices. Some highlights include an 18.4 micron 11 bale Merino Fleece lot branded REDGUM DOWNS / SW yielding 73.9%, 90mm/47Nkt 0.3vm selling for 1493c/kg clean or 1103. A stylish 21.9 micron 13 bale Merino fleece lot yielding 77.9%, 104mm/30nkt selling for 1271c/kg cln or 990 greasy, whilst a 21.3 micron lot of similar specs passed in at 1300. A tender, 15 bale line of 22.2 micron with 3.1%VM sold for 1058c/kg cln or 657 in the grease. Next week's WooltradePlus sale is scheduled for Tuesday at 11am.
