Week ending 17/12/2012

With flood waters slowly starting to recede, cattle numbers were well up on last week, finishing at 9890 head.

With around 3500 of these coming from feature cattle sales there was plenty for buyers to look at; there were also several feature female offerings in our regular Friday sales which achieved excellent results.

With sheep prices continuing their downward trend, numbers dropped this week to 52,381 head.

First cross ewes again failed to spark much interest from buyers, and passed in rates were high. Merino and crossbred lambs followed a similar trend, while Merino ewes on the other hand continued to meet strong competition. Lines of Haddon Rig and Mumblebone blood unjoined 18 month old ewes at Bourke with big jackets made in excess of $200, as did 2 year olds in lamb to Border Leicesters in SA. Even most ewes in the 5-6 year old age ranges were selling for over the $100 mark.

Exporters were back in the running this week, with reports that boats will be leaving southern ports this month. However with mutton prices still low, there was limited competition on suitable lines from processors, and boat wethers estimated to dress 30kg sold for $93.

Quality joined females were the feature of today's cattle sales, with buyers operating from all over the eastern part of the country, and one line of cows and calves will be making the journey from southern NSW to central Queensland.

Elders International offered 400 rising two year old PTIC heifers out of Victoria, with the tops of the Lawson blood Angus heifers making $1380. Romani Pastoral PTIC yearling Angus heifers made to $1220; and the 2 year olds with calves sold for $1505. Paraway Pastoral offered several lines of older cows, topping at $955 for the 6 year olds and the CFA cows making $780. The RMA group ran their first Hereford AuctionsPlus sale today, which picked up after a slow start to see PTIC rising two year old heifers reach $1440.

Quality black steers in the Hunter and Northern Tablelands met strong demand today, reaching 260c for 306kg weaners and 238c for yearling steers weighing 338kg. In the north, 328kg Brahman steers at Moura, 18-26 months old reached 194c. The Mortlake District Weaner sale today saw the heavier end of the steers make 213c for black steers weighing 362kg, and at the lighter end 253kg Angus/Charolais steers made 271c, while their sisters reached 260c. Jeogla offered almost 2,000 head on Wednesday, with Shorthorn cross and Beefmaker steers ranging from 360-520kg, averaging 445kg. Prices ranged from 183c to 227c, for a sale average of 207c/kg.

Wooltrade sales this week, influenced by a steadying market finished up at 327 bales. The wool market this week eased out and finished up a single cent higher than the previous week, the current EMI standing at 1244c/kg. The trial of Tuesday/Wednesday wool sales has created mixed feelings among brokers, buyers and woolgrowers however time will tell whether or not this is adopted as the norm. Trialling a Thursday WooltradePlus sale did not deter buyers who were keen to get in and compete on what was on offer.
