Market Comments
Week ending 16/03/2012

With several feature sales this week, cattle numbers were well up to finish at 11,583 head. Sheep numbers however dropped to finish at 45,400. The laws of supply and demand showed themselves in our sheep sales this week, with many sheep held off in the past couple of weeks due to rain reappearing in saleyards, and passed in rates were higher. Buyers were still willing to spend on better quality sheep; however prices were at a more sustainable level than some of the highs (and lows) we have seen of late.

Older Merino ewes had more competition this week, with many making above the $100 mark, up from last week. The top price was for 6 year old Haddon Rig blood ewes out of Yass, scanned to White Suffolks, which made $136. Young ewes in lamb to terminal sires made to $171, and a line of 3 year olds in lamb to Merinos sold for $165. First cross ewe prices were steady, selling from $175 to $190 for young ewes.

Upward movement in the wool market this week sparked interest in well bred woolgrowing wethers. In southern NSW Caroonboon blood lambs made $100, and grown Haddon Rig blood hoggets in central NSW sold for $99.50, both lines with only around an inch on their backs.

Two feature sales this week saw plenty of quality females available. The Walcha Selected Female offering of PTIC heifers and cows saw first calf heifers Angus reach $1250 and cows top at $1070. The Fabulous Female sale held in conjunction with the Beef Spectacular field day saw rising two year old Simmental/Angus heifers sell for $1340, PTIC cows top at $1510, and cows with calves reach $1810. On the same day, the Jeogla and Wallamumbi sale offered PTIC heifers to average $1210, yearling and weaner heifers averaged 209c, and weaner steers 250-350kg selling to an average of 244c.

In today's sales, cows and calves met good competition, particularly noticeable in QLD offerings. A large line of 320 crossbred mixed age cows with Droughtmaster and Hereford calves at Barcaldine attracted bidding from as far as the Victorian border, eventually settling at $915. Mixed age Droughtmaster cross and Brahman cross cows with Charolais and Santa calves at Blackall sold for $1220.

There were plenty of good quality black weaner steers around today, and plenty of buyers with money for this article. Little 6-8 month old steers at Rylstone weighing 229kg made 310c/$710, and the lighter draft at 180kg sold for 341c. In SA, older weaners with more weight sold to 212c for the lighter end at 359kg, with the heaviest draft at 430kg making 192c/$825.
