Market Comments
Week ending 02/03/2012

Sheep and lamb numbers remained steady this week at 60,498 head. Cattle numbers fell slightly to total 6,845 head. However our numbers were not as greatly affected by current weather conditions as saleyards, particularly in the southern part of the country, with many of our vendors listing stock this week willing to offer flexible delivery arrangements.

Those who received some rain, but who weren't busy preparing for floods, were eagerly buying stock, with cattle clearances remaining high. There was also a definite shift in the sheep market this week, with clearance rates showing vast improvements on recent weeks.

Young Merino ewes are still the stars of the show, topping at $200 this week for 18 month old Wilgunyah blood ewes at Collarenabri, and older age groups of these ewes ranging from $126 for the old ewes to $185 for the two-year-olds. First cross ewes again attracted attention after a bumpy few weeks, with Border Leicester/merino 5 year old ewes at Griffith, scanned in lamb to terminal sires sold for $192.50, and 3 year old Dohne/Merino ewes joined to Poll Dorsets made $177.

With the export job showing some more promise of late, Merino wether prices have also picked up. In Cowra well grown 18 month olds with almost two inches of wool sold for $112, and in Tasmania wether lambs made $92.50 Store lamb prices have recovered in the past few weeks, with those close to 40kg easily reaching $100, and 30kg lambs in the $80-85 range.

There were plenty of quality Angus females available this week, including the Team Te Mania female sale on Tuesday. This sale saw top quality 18 month old PTIC heifers at Forbes reach $2010, and young cows with calves at Geelong sell for $1560. Today, mixed age Santa and Santa cross cows with Santa calves at foot at Ilfracombe sold for $1255, and Santa/Charolais three-year-olds with calves made $1540 in southern NSW.

With numbers dropping in physical markets, young cattle prices firmed slightly today. Starting in the north at Ilfracombe, a big line of Charolais cross yearling steers weighing 343kg made 220c, and their sisters at 326kg selling for 198c.

Black steers out of northern NSW again met strong competition, with weaner steers approaching 250c. A large offering of good quality Angus weaners out of SA attracted buyers from several states, with the bulk travelling to northern NSW. The heavier end of the steers at 375kg made 225c, the lighter steers at 326kg selling for 235c, and heifers from 204-233c.

Wooltrade sales firmed up this week to around 750 bales. The market regained confidence this week with Merino and Crossbred wool types making up a large percentage of bales sold. Wooltrade currently has around 8700 bales listed nationwide. WooltradePlus offerings were greatly increased this week with 2 sales and a total of 82 lots/665 bales. Buyers were in and heavily competing for all types with Crossbred types as well as Cardings and Locks selling strongly. Fleece wools were priced above market expectations this week with fewer sales seen among these types.
