

AuctionsPlus market comment week ending 18 May 2012

Cattle numbers jumped by over 3,000 to finish at 9,399 head, with 4,300 of these out of Queensland alone, and even a few from the Territory making their way into our market this week. Sheep and lamb numbers fell by 8,000 this week to total 44,847 head; with the sheep market continuing to fall, those with enough feed about are holding off in the hope that prices may improve in the near future. Passed in rates were high, particularly in Thursday's sale; however it is worth noting that in this small sale of only 5,000 head, over half were re-offered from previous sales.

With many in need of rain, plainer sheep are coming on the market earlier than hoped as feed supply starts to tighten up, though vendors are reluctant to part with their sheep at the prices being dictated. Even an inch top up should see buyer confidence leap and inject some enthusiasm into the current market.

Compared to breeding females, Merino wethers fared reasonably well this week, topping at $111.50 for 13 month old Boonoke bloods out of West Wyalong with a big jacket. Most young wethers that found buyers made around the $70 mark, being recently shorn. Merino ewes listed were mostly old ewes or lines of mixed ages, with vendors trying to hold onto their better breeding stock. One exception was an offering of young unjoined Mungadal blood ewes at Deniliquin with an inch on their backs, topping at $112.50. Crossbred ewes were few and far between, with one line of Border Leicester/Merino 9 month old ewe lambs joined to White Suffolks making $143. Store lambs numbers also dropped off this week, and the few offerings being on the lighter side. 28kg Border/Merino wether lambs made $55, and White Suffolk/Merino mixed sexes weighing 27kg made $47, both out of northern NSW.

The cattle market is holding better than their woolly counterparts, as shown by more buyer interest – there were around 170 registered bidders logged in to each of today's auctions, with a total of 337 individual users over the three auctions.

The weaner market was still strong in northern NSW but softened in other areas, particularly the south. Some good prices for young cattle were also achieved out of Queensland today; yearling Brahman steers north of Charters Towers weighing 289kg made $510/177c, and a large offering out of St George saw yearling Droughtmaster & Droughtmaster cross 431kg steers sell for 192c or $825, and 369kg Charolais/Droughtmaster heifers reach $675/183c. Angus weaners meeting the market today were almost exclusively in the 250-300kg range, selling from $595-$655. Heavier yearling Angus steers at 349kg made $730/209c, and 416kg Charolais cross steers sold for 188c or $780.

Some promising results for breeding females, with 2 year old Santa heifers at Meandarra in calf to Santa making $1055, and in the south at Holbrook top quality seven year old Black baldy cows in calf to Angus sold for $1410. Of the cow and calf offerings, older Droughtmaster & Brahman cows with Charolais calves at foot made $950 at Aramac, and further south at Cowra 5-8 year old Angus cows with Angus calves sold for $1265. A large line of 271 mixed age Bendulla blood Hereford cows out of Alice Springs with 174 calves at foot made $610, plus freight to southern Queensland.
