Numbers almost doubled on account of the cow sale incorporated with the prime market last week. An increased field of buyers was operating along with some local restocker competition. Quality was mixed and all weights and grades were represented.

Heavy well finished cows sold to steady demand with prices holding firm. Well finished cows ranged in price from 133c to 148c/kg. Two and three score cows were in shorter supply and prices strengthened 4c/kg. The mixed quality selection of bulls sold to erratic sales and they made from 153c to 180c/kg.
