comparison date 14/06/2012

Numbers increased with limited numbers of finished trade cattle available. Prices were generally firm for the better weight store and trade lines as well as cows. Light weight drafts to feeder and restocker orders as well as bulls were lower. Competition was limited with not all processors or store buyers active.

Vealer steers sold from 211c to 231c with the heavy weights to the trade at 231c/kg. Vealer heifers all sold to restockers and feeders at prices from 200c to 232c/kg. Yearling steers to the trade averaged 225c/kg. Heavy weight yearling heifers to the trade sold from 145c to 217c/kg to be mostly firm. The majority of supply sold to feeders and restockers with light weights trending lower, whilst medium and heavy weights were firm.

Cow demand remained firm with better heavy drafts averaging 149c/kg. Lighter conditioned drafts sold from 74c to 143c/kg to be slightly cheaper.
