Numbers were steady and quality was excellent due to a large representation of heavy well-finished lines of beef bred cows. Not all the usual buyers were in attendance, however there was the inclusion of a northern processor after a lengthy absence.

Heavy cows were well supplied and sold to much weaker demand with prices falling up to 16c, isolated sales more, averaging 125.6c/kg. The 2 and 3 score cows were in reasonable numbers and the D2 and D3 pens were 17c cheaper, selling from 80c to 124c/kg. There was a mixed selection of dairy lines offered with heavy D2 cows selling 12c/kg cheaper.

A good quality selection of bulls sold to a small group of buyers resulting in a cheaper trend of 40c/kg.
