

As we often see in the week before the interrupted Easter trading week, cattle numbers jumped dramatically to 10,096 head offered, and for the first time in many months we saw big numbers coming out of QLD. Sheep numbers dropped slightly to 39,736 head. Again there were big numbers of Merino ewes available, and prices were largely unchanged on last week. Young unjoined ewes sold from $50 to a top of $157 for rising two year old ewes scanned to White Suffolk out of Wellington. Mixed age lines sold from $50.50 to $66, and old unjoined ewes made $41.50 to $77.50. A week of stellar prices for Merino wethers saw only a couple of lines across all ages make under $60. Prices were boosted by plenty of quality lambs with a good wool return on their backs being offered, with several lots exceeding $80. Highlights included unshorn Caroonboon blood lambs at Hay weighing 37kg selling for $87.50, and 38kg Lines Gum Hill blood lambs with an October skin out of SA making $84.50. Five and six year old, July shorn, Mt Ascot blood wethers out of Winton averaging 49kg-51kg made $63.50 to go to central NSW, with restocker and processor competition from as far as Victoria. Crossbred lamb numbers are gradually tightening as is usual for this time of year, and some enticing winter contract prices are keeping the store market at the high levels seen for the past month. 33kg lambs out of Walcha made $113, and 37kg-38kg lambs sold for $101 to $115. The top price was $120.50 for October drop second crosses at Inverell weighing 40kg, and similar weight nine and ten month old lambs made $98-$99.50. A large feature offering of Santa and Santa cross yearling cattle out of central QLD attracted spirited bidding from both QLD and NSW buyers. Steers sold from 185c for the tops to 201c for the lighter end. Heifers made 136c to 176c. Light steers across all states sold from 189c to 281c and averaged 221c, with the Angus portion of these averaging 235c. Light heifers made 152c-221c to average 177c. 250kg-300kg steers averages sold from 195c-277c to average 217c, and included the top priced Angus weaners at $780 for 281kg Angus steers at Cooma. Similar weight heifers trailed by 45c to average 172c. 300kg-350kg steers averaged 206c and heifers 163c. Feeder weight Hereford steers in Victoria made 202c-205c. Cows with calves at foot sold to a top of $970 for young Angus cows with their first calf at foot and back in calf, with prices ranging upwards from $555. Prices for joined females continue to steadily increase, with some processor activity assisting in today's sales. Heifers joined for their first calf topped at $1190 for unregistered stud Angus heifers at Holbrook. Younger females made from $930 to a top of $1020 for rising three year old Shorthorn cows at Coonamble. Most cows sold today were mixed age and older lines, selling from $465 to $900. Due to public holidays on Friday 18th and Friday 25th April, the Eastern States cattle sales for the next two weeks will be held on Thursday 17th and Thursday 24th commencing at 10am. Catalogues will be available on the Wednesday evening prior as usual.
