A record number of cattle were yarded at Wodonga. The quality of the offering was outstanding with two thirds of the cows well finished. Leaner cows travelled from as far Coonamble in NSW and sold to spirited bidding from most buyers. The usual turnout of buyers were in attendance, although not all export companies operated fully.

Heavy cows were well supplied with prices unchanged to a few cents cheaper to average 159c/kg. The 2 and 3 score cows were in shorter supply and made from 128c to 155c, easing 3c/kg.

The mixed selection of bulls sold to weaker demand and most processors operated this week. The best of the B and C muscled bulls sold from 150c to 188.6c, selling 8c to 13c/kg cheaper.
