Well finished cows were in reasonable numbers and most buyers were keen to secure a market share of the higher yielding lines. Heavy cows were 4c to 8c dearer, making from 248c to 262c to average 254.5c/kg. Two and three score cows were in reasonable supply and prices were 7c higher, with the D3 medium weights averaging 240.7c/kg. Friesian cows were in limited numbers, with most lines winter affected and prices ranged from 180c to 225c/kg.

A mixed selection of bulls sold to a small gallery of buyers and buyers clashed over all weights and grades contributing to a dearer trend for the plainer stock. The better shaped B and C muscled heavy bulls made from 230c to 259c/kg.
