Numbers eased with a drop in the yearlings offered. Prime young cattle still remain in short supply with the bulk of the young cattle going onto feed. Grown steers were well presented and remained in similar numbers but had an extra order operating on the younger drafts. Around 300 cows were penned to the usual buyers in a dearer market.

The best of the restocking vealers reached 399c and to the trade 373c/kg. Medium weight feeder steers were 7c dearer while plainer heavy weights eased 9c/kg, the better covered heavy feeders stayed steady. Prices ranged from 320c to 361c/kg. Feeder heifers held firm on the medium weights selling from 310c to 335c/kg. The trade steers were 12c dearer with more competition to average 332c/kg.

Grown steers lifted 12c and the heavy bullocks were unchanged receiving 297c to 328c/kg for most. The medium weight 2 score cows were 7c cheaper ranging from 210c to 235c, while the 3 and 4 score heavy weights lifted 2c on average ranging between 232c and 248c to average 245c/kg.
