

Area Manager

Queensland

If you are enthusiastic about a sales career that involves rural merchandising and livestock producers, then this might be the opportunity you have been looking for.

Allflex Australia is a market leader in animal identification systems. This includes RFID devices, readers and visual ear tags. We have a very well established brand and a strong market position. Our culture is founded on product quality and customer focus. We strive to offer the best products underpinned with excellent service to rural merchants and end-user producers.

This role is an additional position servicing the vital Queensland industry alongside an existing Area Sales Manager.

As an Area Sales Manager your role will be to increase and drive new sales by building strong relationships with rural merchants, livestock producers and other industry stakeholders.

A strong livestock background is important. Previous sales experience in agribusiness will be well regarded. Good computer, communication and time management skills are a must, as is a current driver's licence. Most importantly, you must be motivated to succeed.

A competitive salary will be offered, commensurate with skills and experience. Package includes a fully serviced company vehicle. Location will be Central or Northern Queensland.
