

DOMESTIC SALES MANAGER

- Fremantle Location
- Management Opportunity
- Capacity to make a difference

Operating since 1919 Harvey Beef is a highly respected icon brand. We are the largest beef processor and exporter in the state and we are well known to all West Australians due to the premium products we market and sell.

Our People are our strength! In order to build on our strengths we have an outstanding opportunity for someone to be a key member of our Sales and Marketing team as Domestic Sales Manager.

As Domestic Sales Manager you will have the passion to contribute to our customer base by cultivating and maintaining strong relationships with our current customers whilst at the same time aggressively growing new accounts.

WHAT DOES A DOMESTIC SALES MANAGER DO AT HARVEY BEEF?

- Develop partnerships with customers by building sustainable business and personal relationships
- Problem solve any customer demands or issues
- On-going communication with our customer base to ensure their needs are met

WHAT DO WE NEED FROM YOU?

- Familiarity with the multifaceted aspects of the Red Meat Industry
- Capacity to monitor sales and manage inventory levels in order to achieve optimal stock levels
- Consistent record of achieving sales at a senior level
- Ability to build and manage relationships with our customers
- Computer literacy
- Tertiary qualifications would be an advantage

We offer an above average salary and excellent working conditions. If you want to be a part of Harvey Beef's success please email your application to rod.schubert@harveybeef.com.au