

INSTRUCTOR (LIVESTOCK)

Temporary Full-Time Fixed-Term Position (2 years)

Reference No: AACC632/13

Do you enjoy the rural lifestyle? Have a passion for training? Want to make a difference in the lives of others? If so, then Longreach Pastoral College is seeking an enthusiastic and qualified Instructor (Livestock) to share their knowledge with future generations.

As a 'hands on' professional your demonstrated knowledge and proactive approach will enable your qualifications, skills and experience to be applied to the areas of instructional delivery and assessment; operational activities; curriculum development; and the growth and sustainability of key educational programs.

Providing a supportive and integral function to the successful growth and development of Longreach Pastoral College's capability, your responsibilities will show your flexibility to work alone or within a team environment to meet compliance and best practice in all business areas. Tasks include:

- Development and delivery of Instruction in area of expertise;
- Recording of student results;
- Advancement of key educational programs; and
- Review, development and implementation of curriculum, assessment and resource materials

Your excellent interpersonal and communication skills, along with strong time management and multitasking skills will encourage an efficient and effective learning environment. Through continuous development of operational activities you will provide training and assessment that enhances the employability prospects of participants.

This position requires you to hold a qualification in Training and Assessment (TAE40110) as well as relevant qualifications in your specialty area. You must possess a high level of teaching competence and ability to coordinate the learning environment.

If you want to be a driving force in an exciting period in the Australian Training landscape, applications can be submitted online as referred to in the "How to Apply" Recruitment Information Sheet available at www.smartjobs.qld.gov.au
