

Livestock Manager/Auctioneer - Queensland

Elders Rural Services requires the services of a high performing auctioneer with excellent livestock and people skills, responsible for managing livestock operations at a key Elders Queensland branch.

This career opportunity will suit someone wanting to take the next step and looking for opportunity to progress within a well established business.

As Livestock Manager and Auctioneer you will:

- Maintain and expand a client portfolio within the branch area
- Perform auctioneering duties at several major selling centres as required
- Manage a livestock sales team, providing sound stock and station agency knowledge, including marketing and drafting of sheep and cattle
- Assist clients with on-property livestock expertise and sales related activities
- Achieve agreed livestock sales and earnings objectives
- Be fully supported by the Elders operational Network in Queensland as well as senior livestock management

To be successful you will have:

- Previous experience in handling livestock
- Experience within a livestock sales team
- Sound client relationship management skills
- An understanding of saleyards, livestock products and safe livestock handling practices
- Ability to work autonomously and determine competing priorities in a fast paced environment

Why join Elders?

- Be part of a pure rural services business which offers exciting and rewarding careers
- Ability to contribute to your local, regional and rural communities
- Competitive base salary commensurate with the role
- Supportive environment to promote personal development and career progression
- Long established, proud Australian company

For further information about this opportunity please contact Greg Dunne, General Manager North, on 0428 500 805.

Applications close 11 June, 2014.

At Elders we encourage applications from a diverse range of people, backgrounds and experiences.