

ABBATOIR WORKERS – DENILIQUN NSW

We are a new meat processing business about to start operations in Deniliquin later this year.

We will be opening two facilities nationally, one in Deniliquin which is estimated to open late November this year and a facility to open in Dandenong early next year.

With revenues expected to be in excess of $200M within 2 years, and employing over 400 employees, this is an exciting time to come on board and join our growing business at one of our two processing facilities.

We are currently seeking a number of experienced and reliable meat industry workers to fill various roles at our abattoir facility at Deniliquin.

We are seeking applicants with the following experience:

- Experienced slaughterman;
- Skilled boners;
- Experienced knife hands;
- General labourers;
- Entry level labourers – training provided;
- Drivers;
- Quality Assurance;
- Office Administration; and
- HR & Payroll.

Meat Industry experience will be highly regarded but not essential as there are various roles available from entry level labourers to skilled meat positions.

You must be physically fit and be able to work both as part of a team and independently, and have a good work ethic. It is essential that you have a current driver's license and your own transport.

Meat processing is strenuous work and requires physical fitness and strength. Applicants will have to undergo a pre-employment medical examination, and drug and alcohol screening. You should not apply unless you can meet these requirements.

If you meet the above criteria and are keen and enthusiastic, please email your application to employment@amg.com.au and quote reference number DEN10.

All applications will be treated confidentially.
