

Livestock Manager Toowoomba

- Large, fast paced and high performing team
- Located in Toowoomba
- Iconic Australian business

For 175 years Elders has been synonymous with rural Australia. More than just real estate, farm supplies or livestock agency, we're an integrated agribusiness focused on creating real value for all our stakeholders in both Australian and international markets.

The Livestock Manager is responsible for coordination of all the day-to-day quarantine and procurement activities associated with Japanese live export shipments. Responsibilities include:

The Livestock Manager will be responsible for:

- Ensuring procurement of cattle fit within the descriptions as set out in all export contracts
- Identifying sources of supply across the Australian Network and extent and quality of the supply available from those sources.
- Monitoring the procurement of livestock process to ensure contract specifications are met, including budgets, pricing, quality, quantity, shipping schedules.
- Signing off selection of all breeds for shipping.
- Monitoring livestock selection to ensure appropriate health, condition, standard are achieved in accordance with contract specifications.
- Sales, as required, support the sales team by participating in the negotiations of live export contracts and ensure profitable return on sale contracts (domestic and international travel may be required).
- Managing all aspects of the quarantine process for the Japanese live export business

You will have:

- An University degree, preferably in Business, Management, Agriculture, International Business or similar is preferred but not essential
- Supply chain, procurement, or business management
- Knowledge and understanding of Livestock industry
- Knowledge of live export and international trading requirements/protocols and legislative requirements, particularly in Japan
- Experience with cattle assessment and selection

Apply now for this great opportunity or for more information call Stephen Reynolds, Sales Manager ULE on 0438 517 171.

Applications close 26 October 2014.

At Elders we encourage applications from a diverse range of people, backgrounds and experiences.