Producer Engagement Officer – Meat Standards Australia

- Brisbane location with frequent domestic travel
- Industry facing role

Meat & Livestock Australia Limited (MLA) is a producer owned company responsible for marketing and research activities for the Australian red meat industries. MLA adds value to this $15 billion industry through R&D, global marketing and other value adding services.

We are currently seeking a Producer Engagement Officer to join our Meat Standards Australia (MSA) team in Brisbane. MSA is a national grading system that predicts the eating quality of beef and sheep meat cuts.

In this industry facing role you will engage producers on a national level to increase their MSA awareness through building and maintaining effective relationships and delivering producer training within the MSA supply chain.

To be successful in this role, you will demonstrate the following:

- A degree in Agricultural Science or related experience

- Qualified AUS-MEAT Chiller Assessor and MSA Grader

- Hold a Certificate 4 in Workplace Training or higher

- A minimum of years' experience within industry or a similar role

- A strong knowledge of producer practices, processor procurement activities, saleyard operations, livestock industry processes, and trading activities of Livestock agents

- Experience and demonstrated skills in delivering presentations to small and large groups of people

- Strong communication and interpersonal skills

- Well-developed computer skills, particularly use of MS Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook.

- Ability to conduct frequent business travel throughout Australia. A valid Australian driver's licence is required.

To see a full position description and selection criteria for this role, please visit our careers page at www.mla.com.au/About-MLA/Careers-at-MLA

Further information is available by contacting MLA's People and Values team on 02 9463 9333 or careers@mla.com.au

Applications close 23 November 2014

Candidate screening and interviews may be conducted prior to the closing date of the advert.