

LIVESTOCK MANAGER

(Sales and Marketing)

Allied Beef is one of Australia's leading beef cattle companies with annual sales of 100,000 cattle. We produce, finance and market premium beef cattle. An opportunity currently exists for a Livestock Manager, based in Toowoomba to drive the business in Queensland and New South Wales.

The position would ideally suit a highly motivated individual with a background that encompasses the purchasing, marketing and management of cattle. The role includes the servicing and sourcing of clients and ensuring the business is adding value to clients through the provision of quality supply chain solutions. The company operates in all the major beef cattle segments including grain fed, grass fed and breeder markets.

The applicant should have,

- experience in cattle marketing, sales, buying and negotiating;
- an in depth knowledge of cattle supply chains;
- excellent organisational and communication skills;
- knowledge of cattle trading, lot feeding, breeding and management systems and;
- proven leadership and customer relationship qualities;

An attractive remuneration package will be negotiated with the successful applicant.

Partners in Progress

*To apply, please send an application to jmaclean@alliedbeef.com.au or contact
James Maclean,
0437 554 658*