

LIVESTOCK REPRESENTATIVE

Allied Beef is one of Australia's leading beef cattle companies. We produce, finance and market premium beef cattle. An opportunity currently exists for a Livestock Representative to assist the team across the Western Downs Region.

This part-time position would ideally suit a highly motivated individual with a background that encompasses livestock, production and marketing. The position includes the managing, servicing and sourcing of clients and buying cattle in the region.

The applicant should have,

- an in depth knowledge of cattle supply chains;
- excellent organisational and communication skills
- knowledge of cattle trading, breeding and management systems and;
- proven leadership and customer relationship qualities;

Partners in Progress

*To apply, please send an application to jmaclean@alliedbeef.com.au
or contact James Maclean, 07 4638 1200*