

Hillside Meat Processors in Narrogin, Western Australian has an excellent opportunity for a Site Manager to join our team. As a solely export abattoir we pride ourselves on producing a quality and consistent product to our international clients. You have complete responsibility for the on-site operations of all plant processes. You will report to the Business Manager and ensure the daily running of the plant is in line with market and contract requirements.

Role and Responsibilities

The Site Manager is responsible for;

- Ensuring that Hillside develops and maintains a competitive operation
- Effective and Efficient utilization of all resources to achieve production objectives
- Product and packaging development
- Compliance with all legislative and regulatory requirements that the organization operates under
- Control and management of all financial costs to ensure maximum profitability
- Product and Production recovery to maximize income from all Meat , By product and Skin products
- Manage Internal and external relationships
- Ensuring all onsite administration functions are effective and cost efficient
- Business development projects as and when directed by Business Manager
- Maintenance and Development of the site as approved by the Company Owners
- Oversee all plant processes departments including, slaughter floor, runners, skins, livestock, processing, production and maintenance.
- Facilitate and implement proposed upgrades and increased plant throughput.

Qualifications and Education Requirements

The Site manager will have the following qualification and education;

- Tertiary qualifications in Food Technology, Food Science or a related discipline an advantage
- Quality Control and industry knowledge
- A good understanding of regulatory standards, HACCP and GMP Principles is advantageous
- A passion for quality and drive, ownership of work
- Excellent time management skills
- Minimum of 5 years' experience with company(s) in the meat industry
- The ability to manage multiple tasks simultaneously
- Ability to work effectively as part of a cross functional team
- Proven excellent oral and written communication and interpersonal skills
- AUSMEAT Accreditation would be preferred but not essential
- Proven analytical and problem solving skills

Additional Requirements

The Site Manager of the Company will have the following additional skills or requirements;

- Strong leadership and management qualities
- Positive work ethic and personality that empowers those around them
- Good planning ability
- Effective communication skills
- Competent computer literacy in the use of Microsoft office
- Strong multitasking ability
- C class license
- Good problem solving skills and ability to make decisions efficiently and quickly

SEND YOUR APPLICATION TO: HOLLY LUDEMAN E: h.ludeman@liveships.com.au M: 0455092827