

Key Account Manager Export Sales

A position has become available to join a well-established, progressive Meat Export business. With multiple offices and a solid client base, the business is looking for a key account manager to be based in Tamworth NSW. Ideally, we are seeking a person who has experience in Export meat sales and enjoys the challenge of working within the global market.

Requirements:

- Manage key accounts domestically and abroad, specifically in the greater Asia region.
- Commercially astute
- Build and maintain a strong customer base
- Strong interpersonal skills and relationship building capabilities
- Willingness to travel overseas.
- Must be a self-starter with the ability to work independently but also be part of a high performing team environment
- Tertiary qualification preferred but not essential.
- An understanding of the red meat supply chain from paddock to plate

The remuneration package would be negotiated commensurate to experience.

This position would suit someone with a meat processing background looking to get into sales or someone with sales experience who wishes to progress.
