

Saleyard Manager

$100,000 + Generous Bonus for business growth, vehicle & phone.

The South Eastern Livestock Exchange (SELX) is a new regional saleyard currently under construction at Yass, NSW. SELX will open in August 2016.

Working closely with the Administration Manager and reporting direct to the Board, you will have ultimate responsibility for the performance of the business and operation of the facility.

The role is simple;

- Develop relationships with key stakeholders; agents, vendors, buyers & carriers
- Manage the smooth operation of sheep and cattle sales
- Be the public face of the business liaising with all levels of media and public
- Manage the maintenance of the facility
- Demonstrate innovation and actions to grow the throughput of the saleyards

To be successful you will;

- Have extensive experience in the livestock industry
- Be driven by objective results
- Be able to work with strong personalities
- Be a leader

To help you be successful you will;

- Have the support of a Board with a broad range of experience in agriculture & business
- Manage a state of the art facility
- Be well resourced to get the job done

This is a rare & exciting opportunity for a career livestock person to join the SELX team in January 2016, & be involved in the Australia's newest saleyards from construction to operation. Your fingerprints will be all over the business with the brief to make it your own.

Yass is a vibrant country town with a strong community culture and excellent education, medical and general services. Canberra is an easy 45 min commute, & Sydney is a 2.5hr freeway drive.
