

Livestock Policy Director

AgForce is Queensland's leading member based organisation representing the interests of cattle, sheep and grain producers in Queensland to industry and government.

An exciting opportunity has arisen to join AgForce in the Brisbane office to provide policy advice on the beef and cattle production portfolio. Beef is Queensland's largest agricultural commodity worth over 8 billion to Queensland economy from paddock to plate and AgForce has over 4,500 members which cover 50 per cent of the state. We aim for a progressive and profitable beef production sector that enhances customer eating's experiences of our Queensland product.

A position description including selection criteria is available from:

http://www.agforceqld.org.au/index.php?tgtPage=contact&page_id=246

Applications must address the selection criteria and should be forwarded to the HR Manager at recruitment@agforceqld.org.au or PO Box 13186, North Bank Plaza, Brisbane, Q, 4003 by 29 January 2016.