

Agribusiness/FMCG Finance Manager

One of Australia's leading, family owned, meat processing companies is entering a significant and exciting period of growth. Based in Warrnambool, the Midfield Group has diversified interests that include multiple meat processing facilities, pastoral holdings and now the development of a dairy processing facility that will initially focus on the production of premium quality milk powders for global markets.

Reporting to the Group CFO, the new fulltime role of Finance Manager will be based in Warrnambool and include multiple responsibilities that will form a key component in the strategic management of the Groups diversified Interests.

With a focus on the business' accounting and finance functions, the Finance Manager will work closely with the CFO and senior management to undertake all forms of financial analysis, management and reporting activities. Additionally, regular engagement with the sales team will be required and so will formation of budgets, overseeing payroll, operating financial software packages and statutory and management reporting.

The Midfield Group offers a fast paced and diverse work environment and seeks a suitably qualified and experienced professional to join its established and experienced team, with a willingness to be "hands on" and robust in their approach to the role. The suitably qualified applicant should demonstrate excellent communication skills and ideally demonstrate a tertiary qualification in either finance, accounting, economics or equivalent industry experience. A demonstrated high competency in a key financial discipline is essential and particular FMCG experience and managing and implementing business systems will be an advantage.

The Midfield Group offers a newly formed key role within the Group that will ideally suit an individual with senior finance experience, or a practicing accountant wishing to advance toward a dynamic commercial and business environment.

All applications will be received in the strictest of confidence. Particulars including remuneration will only be discussed with shortlisted applicants.

Applications close Friday 22nd January 2016. All applications including cover letter and resume should be forwarded to Group HR Manager, Barry Crimmin bcrimmin@midfield.com.au
