

Export Sales Person

Cedar Meats Australia Pty Ltd is a Melbourne based small stock processor based in Brooklyn.

Cedar Meats have enjoyed a sustained period of growth in recent years and are now looking to increase their sales team to help sustain this growth.

This is a dynamic and exciting opportunity for an individual to join a well established and highly regarded Australian family owned meat processing company, currently exporting to all destinations in the world a full range of lamb, mutton, veal and goat.

The ideal candidate would possess all or some of the below

- Industry experience in small stock processing and sales
- An understanding of country requirements
- Existing relationships with overseas buyers
- A willingness to work in a team environment
- Ability to effectively communicate with all staff, including owners and managers
- Good understanding of yields and costings

In return Cedar Meats are offering an attractive salary package, commensurate with experience, to the right candidate.

All applications should be accompanied by a cover letter and a detailed resume of experience and history. All applications will be treated in the strictest of confidence.
