

SHEEP EXPORT FEEDLOT MANAGER

Ausvision Rural Services Pty Ltd provides vertically integrated supply chain services working closely with Livestock Shipping Services Pty Ltd as part of a significant livestock export and meat processing agribusiness. We are looking for a hardworking and practical person to join the company as part of management team succession planning.

The “Amberley” property located in Kojonup, WA comprises an export quarantine area for preparing sheep prior to export. The property is also used for cropping and breeding herds of both cattle and sheep. Kojonup is a historic rural town 250 km from Perth and 160 km to Albany with good amenities, sporting team’s and schools.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Supervising all the daily tasks of the depot/holding facility
- Receival and preparation procedure of livestock for live export
- Unloading, loading, drafting and weighing of livestock
- Livestock husbandry and welfare including handling and veterinary treatments
- Pen riding/walking and recognition of sick livestock.
- Livestock feeding and record keeping
- Machinery operation, basic maintenance and staff training
- Personnel and staff training and management
- Carrying out required tasks in line with company policy of all regulatory requirements including OHS, ASEL, QA, Animal Welfare and Environmental.
- Identify required depot repairs and maintenance and carry out preventative maintenance
- Maintain accurate and concise livestock data to assist in the provision of depot records and reporting to head office (or other) in a timely manner as required by management.
- Assume the role of Depot Manager when the Manager is not on site

Skills and Qualifications

- Previous experience in working in an intensive livestock handling operation
- Basic knowledge of Australian regulatory environment associated with livestock, export and depots.
- Ability to supervise a small competent team in a dynamic and high pressure environment.
- Sound computer skills advantageous
- Minimum C class license, HR preferred

Ausvision offers market competitive conditions and the position is part of a succession plan for the premises and company. Accommodation can be offered on site as part of the package.

Enquiries Holly Ludeman

Mobile: 0455092827 Email: h.ludeman@liveships.com.au