

Chief Executive Officer

Herefords Australia is one of Australia's largest and most progressive beef breed organisations representing the interests of approximately 1500 members nationally. Herefords Australia is focused on delivering a range of services that will ultimately increase the demand for Hereford cattle and genetics, domestically and internationally.

The current CEO, for personal reasons, is relocating. As a consequence, we are seeking a highly motivated, experienced CEO that has proven leadership, communication and corporate governance abilities. The CEO reports to and provides strategic and operational input to the Board of Directors and is supported by a small and committed staff from a dedicated office in Armidale, NSW.

A contemporary understanding and empathy for Australian agriculture, especially beef production, will be highly regarded for this role. A natural, personal communication style supported by advanced written communication skills are essential as will be your ability to embrace and champion change. Experience in managing complex R&D projects and gaining external financial support for projects will be highly regarded.

The role includes some interstate travel and from time-to-time, some international travel.

An attractive remuneration package is on offer.
