

QA Officer – Beef Industry Experience

Are you are a passionate and experienced Quality Assurance Officer who has experience in the Meat Processing industry. You have high QA standards. You can make decisions, are confident in your abilities and not afraid to speak up if needs be. You pay excellent attention to detail enjoy working in a team.

Reporting to the Quality Assurance Manager, your responsibilities will include but are not limited to:

- Complete and prepare for internal and external audits.
- Manage and maintain Quality Assurance and HACCP systems
- Ensure compliance of Good manufacturing Practices and Personal Hygiene of staff.
- Monitoring and maintaining the manufacturing Food Safety and Quality program documentation.
- Conduct and maintain hygiene and quality.

Successful candidate will need:

- Sound knowledge of beef industry legislation and standards incl. Aus-Meat Beef Specification
- Experience with HACCP, BRC, Aus-Meat and Department of Agriculture standards
- Proactive attitude with excellent organisational and time management skills.
- Good written and communication skills.
- Excellent Manufacturing Practices within the meat industry
- Ability to manage multiple tasks simultaneously
- Ability to work effectively as part of a cross functional team
- Committed to process improvements
- Decisive, proactive, a real self-starter
- Computer literate with well-developed Microsoft Office skills

If you possess the above criteria and see this role as an opportunity to develop your career then we want to hear from you.

Apply now to – employment@amg.com.au