Education & Training Manager – Industry Training Longreach Pastoral College (2 year Contract)

Who are we...

Queensland Agricultural Training Colleges (QATC) is a key provider of accredited training and commercial business within the Agricultural and Agribusiness sector of Queensland. As a diverse and dynamic Vocational Education and Training (VET) organisation we strive to attract and retain energetic and highly engaged individuals. This combination creates a positive workplace that grows, develops and improves on a continual basis contributing to the sustained viability of the agricultural industry.

What are we looking for...

Longreach Pastoral College is looking for an expert in the field of industry-based vocational education and training (VET) who will be responsible for planning, delivery and administration of quality training and assessment systems, management of finance and budgets and effective deployment of staff.

Working with the Education and Training Manager-Industry Training, Emerald Agricultural College and the Education and Training Manager-Higher Education, the incumbent will foster and collaborate on VET programs and associated learning pathways.

Supporting the surrounding regional areas of Longreach, you will be required to undertake frequent travel and engage a broad stakeholder group to build the TASTE program, PACE program, Traineeships, short courses and non-accredited training including placing a high priority on the VETIS programs within high schools in the regional area.

This challenging but rewarding role is for an individual who possesses a passion for industry training, enjoys being hands-on, has a high level of interpersonal and networking skills and retains a strategic outlook.

It's all about you...

The Incumbent must be degree qualified in education or other relevant discipline with extensive knowledge of Vocational Education and Training. You will need to be positive, practice ownership and be supportive of others with a commitment to client and industry outcomes. Importantly you will be able to align with our organisational vision and values.

To discuss, please contact Karen Smith, Director, Longreach Pastoral College on (07) 4652 8588.

To be eligible for employment, applicants must be an Australian Citizen or hold permanent residency status.
