

Livestock Coordinator - Deniliquin NSW

We are a new major Food Processing Operation based in Deniliquin. This is an exciting time to join the company and to grow with the business at one of its two processing facilities.

This business is a start-up business with revenue expected to be in excess of $200M within 2 years, employing over 400 people.

About the role

As part of this new exciting journey, we are looking for a Livestock Coordinator to join our growing and dynamic team at Deniliquin. Reporting to the plant and Livestock Supervisor, you will come to us with previous experience gained within the Livestock - Meat Industry and possess and high level of energy and a 'can do attitude'.

Experience and skills required

- Strong knowledge of livestock industry
- Day-to-day livestock operations experience
- Examine all livestock and documentation on arrival and monitor livestock during holding period.
- Liaise with the Livestock Supervisor on all matters affecting livestock and livestock receivals.
- Attention to detail and ensure all livestock lines are appropriately identified.
- Ability to handle livestock in accordance with the companies code of practice
- Ability to accurately count large numbers of livestock
- High level communication and interpersonal skill
- Flexibility with the ability to adapt to changing circumstances
- Intermediate computer skills
- Current drivers licence

You will be joining our business at an exciting time, and will be rewarded with a challenging and fulfilling role, and a generous salary package, commensurate with experience. Your hours of work will be a five day roster with weekends included as required.