

HEAD STOCKMAN POSITION – AROONA STATION (NT)

The McLoughlin family requires an Experienced Head Stockman for Aroona Station. Aroona is a family owned and operated cattle breeding property. It is approx. 360,000 acres and runs up to 15,000 head of Brahman cattle at any one time.

Aroona is located approximately 90 kilometres west of Katherine with the Victoria Highway adjoining the southern boundary. The culture within on our station is that of working together as a team to meet our targets.

KEY ABILITIES

- Cattle Handling
 - Highly experienced in handling large mobs of cattle in a low stress manner;
 - Good knowledge of helicopter and horse mustering;
 - Leadership style that emphasises quiet cattle handling;
 - Experienced animal husbandry practices that are efficient and safe;
 - Experienced in education of weaners;
 - Capable in horse shoeing
- Maintenance
 - Ability to supervise and facilitate all property maintenance including fencing, yards and plant
- Staff Management
 - Ability to induct and supervise stock staff;
 - A good knowledge of workplace standards for health and safety and can implement them efficiently;
 - Show a duty of care for staff
- Communication
 - High level of written and verbal communication skills;
 - Ability to accurately report stock numbers, and record stock movements and treatments

Single accommodation provided. No Dogs.

Salary and living package to be negotiated.