

CORFIELD DOWNS

PASTORAL

Assistant/Livestock Managers

- Progressive Young Beef Enterprise
- Focus on Staff Development
- Challenging but Fulfilling

Company

Corfield Downs Pastoral is a young, family owned beef business currently centred on Corfield Downs, Corfield QLD. We seek to integrate research, innovative farming methods and capital investment to dramatically improve productivity of the land we manage. It is our aim to develop staff to their full potential by providing fulfilling roles with a focus on staff development and advancement coupled with good communication lines. Current strategy is to fatten weaner cattle for the live export or feedlot markets.

The Positions

An exciting opportunity has been created by the expansion of our enterprise. We are seeking an energetic, self-motivated young working couple to fill the position of Livestock /Assistant Managers for Corfield Downs Pastoral.

Reporting to the Station Manager, the successful applicants will be responsible for the general day to day operations of the 45 000 ha Mitchell grass downs property and also cover for the station manager when absent from the property. Each assistant manager will have responsibility for half of the property and so have autonomy in decision making in relation to livestock, waters, lick, etc.

The initial role of these positions will be to implement an RCS designed water and fencing intensification plan. The successful applicants will then manage the expected increase in herd size by the efficient utilisation of the new paddocks created by rotational grazing. Applicants should be confident, knowledgeable and experienced with pasture management, mustering and processing large mobs of cattle (up to 4000 head). You will also be required to undertake general maintenance, fencing and water runs. You must have an aptitude for adopting new processes and adhere to a strong WHS and animal welfare working environment. Drivers licenses and working dogs are also prerequisites for the role.

Ideally, the successful applicants will be a younger married couple who desire to further their career in agriculture. Enthusiasm, a commitment to learn and a strong work ethic will be essential for this young growing pastoral company. Further studies or tertiary qualifications will be well regarded.

Remuneration

A competitive remuneration package including accommodation will be negotiated to attract the best candidates along with a vision of potential career progression with Corfield Downs Pastoral.
