

Area Sales Manager

- Livestock focus
- Southern Qld/Northern NSW region
- Flexible location

This is a great opportunity to join an international livestock technology market leader. The company is a leader in identification systems with an overarching objective of advancing livestock production technology and maximising productivity.

As Area Sales Manager you will be the public face for the company in your territory, increasing and driving new sales with rural retail partners. This will be achieved through the combination of innovative sales and marketing campaigns and the maintenance of existing relationships, as well as the development of new business opportunities.

A strong livestock background is essential, along with passion for new technology, a professional, practical approach and the desire to achieve results. While tertiary qualifications are preferred but not essential, you will have the ability to sell the benefits of the products, the brand and the future opportunities. Excellent communication and relationship building skills with people at all levels is essential, along with willingness to travel and the energy and enthusiasm to make it happen.

This is a great role with a well respected market leader, so to enquire please phone Mick Hay or Sharon Moloney on 07 3878 3411 or apply via www.rimfireresources.com.au.
