

International Meat Trader – USA Based

- Outstanding career opportunity
- Global industry leader

Here is a great opportunity to work with a global meat organisation, further developing your career in international meat trading. They have a very diverse international customer base with strong brands and are known for recognising their employees' strengths and success in supporting further career progression through their organisation.

They are now keen for a trader with 2-5 years' experience in meat trading (ideally international) to join their US team. You will receive strong mentoring and support but will already have a solid track record in meat trading in Australia, experience in market analysis and pricing, developing and executing strategy to support sales goals, and the ability to identify and develop opportunities. You will also possess energy, strong team work, and thrive in a fast paced environment.

This role represents a terrific career opportunity in a great US location, and the impressive remuneration package includes incentives and relocation assistance.
