

CENTRAL LAND COUNCIL

The Central Land Council (CLC) is a Commonwealth Government Statutory authority established under the Aboriginal Land Rights (Northern Territory) Act 1976 operating over the southern half of the Northern Territory – an area of 776,549 square kilometres. With more than 250 employees, and at least half Aboriginal employees, the CLC is the peak Aboriginal body for Central Australia and a Native Title Representative Body under the Native Title Act 1993.

The CLC provides traditional owners with advice, advocacy and practical assistance to support their aspirations, have their rights as landowners recognised and in the sustainable use and management of their land. We strive to represent the interests of the traditional landowners and other Aboriginal people resident in our region on a wide range of land-based and socio-political issues.

Our Council seeks to improve the lives and futures of all Aboriginal constituents through sustainable development and change. Together with Legal, Anthropological, Land Management and Mining services we operate successful Community Development (CD) and Ranger Programs with ranger groups based in ten Aboriginal communities across the CLC region. The CLC is seeking applications for:

REGIONAL RURAL ENTERPRISE OFFICER—ALICE SPRINGS—EE008

Classification: ASO 5—6 Base salary ($67,058-$83,199)

Plus Super, Salary Sacrifice and Remote Area Allowance

Full-time, 3 year fixed term contract

Based in Alice Springs, this position is responsible for contributing to the performance of the CLC's statutory function to assist Aboriginal people to carry out sustainable commercial activities on their land. The successful candidate will undertake participatory planning, consultations, negotiations and research tasks relevant to pastoral and rural enterprise development aspirations of Traditional Landowners. The candidate will be required to provide advice and assistance to Aboriginal owners and operators of pastoral and other rural enterprises, particularly relating to corporate governance and financial management, livestock management and infrastructure development, and liaise with relevant agencies, consultants, suppliers and contractors. The successful applicant will also facilitate access by Aboriginal enterprise operators to strategic and business planning expertise from relevant agency, industry and other private sector sources. The candidate will have relevant tertiary qualifications and/or competency certificates in rural science, rural business development or related disciplines.
