

Station Manager Alexandria Station

The North Australian Pastoral Company Pty Limited (NAPCO) is an innovative Australian company that aims for excellence in all areas of its operations. The Company runs a herd of approximately 200,000 cattle across a property portfolio of 13 cattle stations and an award winning feedlot.

NAPCO is seeking a Station Manager for its largest property – Alexandria Station on the Northern Territory's Barkly Tableland.

Alexandria covers 16,100 square kilometers and is currently running 70,000 composite-bred cattle. It is at the forefront of Company operations, branding over 35,000 calves per annum, and operating an industry-leading stud program that seeks to deliver a productive herd that is able to deliver high quality, consistent cattle that exceed the expectations of NAPCO's customers.

The ongoing development of the property remains a key focus for NAPCO, providing opportunity for a strategic, long-term thinker to develop and implement a vision for one of Australia's most renowned cattle stations.

The successful applicant will have the following:

- Proven experience managing a cattle station
- Outstanding leadership qualities and excellent communication skills
- A sound understanding of cattle breeding and genetics concepts
- Experience with large scale property development projects
- Be a highly organised individual, capable and a self-starter
- A big picture perspective that thrives within a team environment, and is mindful of the needs of customers, shareholders and other stakeholders
