LIVESTOCK SALES REPRESENTATIVE

Quality Livestock is a leading, independent livestock sales and marketing company operating across regional South Australia. There currently exists an exciting opportunity for an energetic person to join our livestock sales team based within 150km proximity to Adelaide. The position involves providing exceptional on-property customer service and livestock marketing advice to our growing customer base.

As a Livestock Representative, you will be required to possess the following skills:

- Knowledge of livestock husbandry, on-farm animal health practices and breeding programs.
- Proactive customer service and drive to increase sales in your region.
- Understanding of livestock transportation logistics and documentation.
- Ability to work individually and/or within a team environment.
- Excellent communication skills.
- Computing skills.

Previous experience in a similar livestock sales role or within the livestock industry would be an advantage.

Quality Livestock offers a competitive package for this position and is an Equal Employment Opportunity employer.
