

POLICY OFFICER – ANIMAL HEALTH & WELFARE

DUTY STATEMENT & SELECTION CRITERIA

The company

Sheepmeat Council of Australia (SCA) is the national body representing Australian sheep producers. Our core business is providing strategic and high level technical advice, on behalf of sheep producers, to government and industry service providers in order to position the Australian sheep industry for future success.

SCA works with key industry service providers (Meat & Livestock Australia (MLA), Animal Health Australia (AHA) and the National Residue Survey (NRS)) and Commonwealth and State Governments to ensure delivery of industry priorities outlined in the Sheepmeat Industry Strategic Plan (SISP).

The current strength and projected growth of the sheepmeat industry, has seen the role and relevance of SCA increase significantly providing an opportunity to increase staffing capacity. Consequently, SCA is now seeking a Policy Officer to join their Canberra based team which currently consists of five full time staff.

Role Purpose

To manage policy, projects, and stakeholder relations in the area of sheep health, welfare and biosecurity, to ensure outcomes are technically sound, able to be implemented and deliver against the SISP.
