Not just jobs...We do careers. From paddock to plate, grow your career with us.

Australian Cattle and Beef Holdings (ACBH), is part of the Australian Country Choice (ACC) Group and is 100% Australian owned and family operated. As the world's largest, fully integrated beef supply chain, our operations encompass large scale cattle breeding, backgrounding, lotfeeding and processing and are located across Queensland. We're a proud industry leader, producing and supplying highest quality beef products to the Coles Group and export markets.

ACBH run extensive breeding and backgrounding operations for up to 150,000 head of cattle over 6 properties across Queensland. One of these, Iffley Station, situated on 105,000 acres, and running 9000 head of cattle is located 175kms south west of Mackay and requires a skilled stock hand to join our close-knit team. You'll enjoy day to day variety in safely undertaking activities including:

- Mustering on horses, drafting & yard work
- General livestock care and quiet handling
- General water maintenance
- General property care and maintenance

Along with sound cattle handling skills (quiet handling), you'll be fit and able to safely undertake the physical aspects of this role. We are seeking a positive, reliable team player who has:

- Communication and team work
- Experience with horses and bikes
- Drivers Licence (truck licence an advantage)
- Commitment to workplace safety

Being the world's largest, vertically integrated beef supply chain, ACBH and ACC offer a diverse range of career opportunities. This is an ideal role for a switched on, hardworking, station hand, who is looking for stability and an opportunity to broaden and develop their skills and agribusiness knowledge with an industry leader.

If this sounds like you, apply now and email your resume and cover letter to iffley@acbh.net.au or call Adam Keyte on (07) 4950 7170.
