

S. Kidman & Co Ltd

Station Hands

- Iconic Australian pastoral company
- Excellent career development opportunity

S. Kidman & Co, one of Australia's largest and most successful beef producers, has two Station Hand opportunities available to join the teams at Innamincka Station and at Naryilco Station. Innamincka is situated in the far north east of South Australia and Naryilco in South West Queensland, 110 km north of Tibooburra.

To be considered, applicants will need to have previous experience with all aspects of Station Hand duties including:

- movement, handling and monitoring of cattle;
- use of horses and bikes;
- general station maintenance and repairs - including fencing & welding;
- vehicle & machinery operation and maintenance; and
- land management.

A Class C Drivers licence, experience riding horses and handling cattle in a calm and controlled manner, along with a strong commitment to workplace safety and animal welfare is required. A Motorbike licence is preferred or be willing to obtain.

Quality single, air-conditioned accommodation is available at both properties and all meals provided. An appreciation for remote rural living is recommended. Full terms and conditions of employment may be viewed in the S. Kidman & Co Ltd Enterprise Agreement 2013 available at www.kidman.com.au.

For further information please contact:

Nathan Keogh, Innamincka Station Manager - Ph: (08) 8675 9903

Kevin Jenkinson, Naryilco Station Manager - Ph: (07) 4655 4362

To apply, please submit an online application at www.kidman.com.au

S. Kidman & Co Ltd is an Equal Opportunity Employer